

2018/19 Undergraduate Student Form I-20/Form DS-2019 Request Packet

The International Studies Office requires this completed form before issuing any student Form I-20 or DS-2019, which respectively support applications for F-1 or J-1 visa status. If your visa status in the U.S. will be based upon your enrollment at UVA, you must obtain F-1 or J-1 status. Students will apply for an F-1 or J-1 visa stamp in their passport before coming to the U.S. You can only apply for the visa once you receive Form I-20 (for F-1 visa applications) or Form DS-2019 (for J-1 visa applications).

- Instead of Form I-20, I would like Form DS-2019 to support J-1 status (see issp.virginia.edu/f-1-or-j-1)*
NOTE: J-1 status is not available to all students and often carries a two-year home residency requirement.

Please select one of the options below

(Canadians and Bermudians coming to the U.S. for the first time in F-1 or J-1 status should select the first option)

- I will apply for an F-1 or J-1 visa at a U.S. consulate outside the U.S. before entering the U.S. in F-1 or J-1 status.
- I currently hold F-1 or J-1 status and plan to transfer to or remain at the University of Virginia in the same status. (issp.virginia.edu/f-1-transfers-and-out-uva)

Under U.S. government regulations, any student who will hold F-1 or J-1 status in the U.S. or any student in F-1 or J-1 status transferring from one academic institution to another must provide documentation to prove financial capability to meet all anticipated expenses for all years of study. The required funding is per year and includes tuition, fees, estimated cost of living and health insurance.
